

Victorian Crown Grantees Index (Part 2)

1838 to the present day

DEDICATION

For more than twenty years Olive Moore OAM was the inspiration and leader of the team of AIGS indexers working on the Victorian Land Records project. Her vision saw the value of the Index for historical research, and her determination and scholarly expertise led the team through the many challenges which the task presented. Above all, Olive was a true friend as well as a colleague and we are honoured and proud to dedicate this CD in her memory.
